FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Good afternoon,

Regarding yesterday's news reports of progress in Mr. Anibal Hernandez Santana's state court case, the following statement can be attributed to Mr. Mark Reichel, legal counsel of record for Mr. Hernandez Santana:

"All cases have a phase of discussion about possible resolution short of a trial. There is no dispute that at the time of the events alleged that Mr. Santana was undergoing some mental health issues. We are discussing those issues as they relate to this case."

The Law Office of Mark Reichel launched an information portal for the public and members of the news media who are interested in updates on Mr. Hernandez Santana's case. That page is available here: https://www.reichellaw.com/ahs/

We will continue to provide updates on Mr. Hernandez Santana's state and federal cases by e-mail as they warrant. Mr. Reichel reminds the public that Mr. Hernandez Santana is presumed innocent of all charges in his state and federal cases, unless and until proven otherwise.
